

BUTTER TUMBLES

Large Increase in Receipts Forces the Price Down.

The Egg Market Remains Stationary. Merchants Expect a Large Shipment of Salmon Saturday, With the Prices About Eight Cents.

Fancy creamery butter has taken another tumble and is quoted at 22½ to 25 cents, while California creamery fell to 20 and 22½ cents. The market is overstocked and there is more butter on hand than there is a demand for. Eggs have evidently reached the lowest notch and no change in prices are quoted. Merchants expect a large shipment of Chinook salmon Saturday and believe prices will be 8 cents.

BABY'S FACE
MASS OF SORES

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off—Body Entirely Covered with Humor—Three Doctors Could Not Cure—Child Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA
IN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. George J. Steese, of 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disfiguring skin humors daily made by Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, after physicians, and all else had failed: "I feel it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was eaten away, her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of soap and box of ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body was as clear as a new-born babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever."

SLEEP FOR BABIES

Rest for Mothers.

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, and purer of emollients.
